Product Description

- RS PRO compartment box organiser is a hard-plastic assortment box with dividers which means the compartments can be arranged in various sizes. The transparent lid means you can easily view all the parts inside and identify what is needed without opening the lid. These assortment boxes are ideal for the storage of nuts, washers, screws and small component parts.
- The RS PRO black organiser case has a depth of 305mm, a width of 395mm and height of 60mm with 17 sections (5-fixed) compartments and 12 adjustable dividers supplied. It is made from polypropylene.
